

In April 2012, NCCA lost a very valuable individual who was a friend to many and was part of the first graduating class - the Class of 2005. He will be greatly missed!

4/5/2012

Daniel Joseph Jock Obituary

Daniel Joseph Jock, 26, died on Wednesday, April 4, 2012 at the Dartmouth Hitchcock Medical Center after a courageous 15-month battle with leukemia. He was surrounded by his loving wife, family, friends, and fellow firefighters.

He was born at the Yokota Air Force Base in Japan, on February 21, 1986, the son of Ernest and Melodie (Caswell) Jock, Jr. Dan graduated from the Littleton Charter School in 2004. He worked for Spencer Richardson, of Home ICU, in Swiftwater, N.H., and more recently, for Walter E. Jock Oil Company, Inc. in Wells River, Vt. as an oil burner technician.

Dan married Megan Winot on February 15, 2012. He was a volunteer firefighter on the Woodsville Fire Department since 2004. Dan was a Level II Certified Firefighter and was RIT Certified. He enjoyed training with others and was an excellent pump operator. He was a member of the Red Knights Chapter #5, Wells River.

Dan will be remembered for practical jokes. He loved hanging with his friends and his children.

He was predeceased by his mother, Melodie (Caswell) Jock, and an aunt, Pamela Caswell Dana.

Survivors include his wife, Megan (Winot) Jock of Woodsville; three children, Matthew C., Joey A., and Jaylynn M. Jock all of Woodsville; his father, Ernest Jock, Jr. of Norfolk, N.Y.; a sister, Ashley Jock of Moira, N.Y.; maternal grandparents, Bonnie Caswell Poor and husband Robert of Bath, N.H.; paternal grandparents, Ernest Jock, Sr. and wife Carrie DeBeer Jock of Brushton, N.Y.; two aunts, Angela Borger and husband Neil and Christine Fleury and husband John; two uncles, Chester Caswell and wife Catherine and Dave Jock; several cousins, and his fire family.

Calling hours will be on Friday, April 6, from 6 to 8 p.m. at the Woodsville Emergency Service Building, 4910 Dartmouth College Highway, Woodsville, NH.

A funeral service will be on Saturday, April 7, at 11 a.m. at Ricker Funeral Home, 1 Birch Street, Woodsville, NH with Rev. Lyn Winter officiating.

Burial will follow at the Pine Grove Cemetery, Swiftwater Road, Woodsville.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Dan Jock Fund, c/o North Country Public Safety Officers Foundation, PO Box 239, Franconia, NH 03580.

Ricker Funeral Home, Woodsville, NH is in charge of arrangements.

For more information or to offer an online condolence please go to www.rickerfh.com

Remembering Dan

PHOTOS BY PAUL HAYES

Woodsville Firefighter Dan Jock was remembered with a ceremonial procession and a memorial service in Woodsville on Saturday, April 7.

Jock died April 4 following a 15 month battle with leukemia. He leaves a wife, Megan, and three children, Matthew, Corey, and Jaylynn.

TOP: Firefighters from more than a dozen local fire departments participate in the memorial procession.

BOTTOM RIGHT: Family and friends smile at a memory of Dan Jock during a sermon delivered by Rev. Lyn O. Winter.

PHOTOS BY PAUL HAYES

A stirring funeral procession and memorial ceremony were held for Dan Jock, 26, a volunteer firefighter on the Woodsville Fire Department since 2004. Jock was remembered for his practical jokes and his love for family and friends.

He died at Dartmouth Hitchcock Medical Center on April 4 following a 15-month battle with leukemia.

He leaves many family and friends including his wife, Megan, whom he married on Feb. 15, 2012, and three children Matthew, Joey and Jaylynn.

Memorial contributions can be made to the Dan Jock Fund, c/o North Country Public Safety Officers Foundation, PO Box 239, Franconia, NH, 03580.

THE RECORD

Friday, April 13, 2012

Dan Jock (1986-2012)

