

MEET THE NORTH COUNTRY CHARTER ACADEMY STAFF

The North Country Charter Academy's Staff is comprised of ten individuals who are dedicated to upholding the school's mission: to provide a rigorous, relevant and engaging education with high standards and expectations which prepares students for life through a personalized, competency-based program that creates confident, career-ready individuals.

Lisa Lavoie, Superintendent

In 2004, Ms. Lavoie was hired by a consortium of ten school district superintendents and has served as Principal of NCCA since its opening. She earned her B.S. in Psychology, M.S. in Business Education, K-12 Principal Certification and just completed her C.A.G.S. in Education Leadership / Superintendent Certification. Prior to serving as a principal, Ms. Lavoie worked with Jobs for NH Graduates, running programs in numerous sites throughout the state of NH for over 16 years. She has devoted her life to working with the at-risk youth population, and continues to be proud to be affiliated with NCCA. Ms. Lavoie says of her staff, "I feel SO FORTUNATE to have exemplary staff that is so caring and passionate about North Country Charter Academy's mission. We are transforming the lives of our students".

Elizabeth Brado, Center Director, Littleton

Ms. Brado is our newest addition to the NCCA family & has over 10 years of teaching experience. She hails from the North Country and has returned to bring new & innovative education to our students.

Scott Kleinschrodt, Center Director, Lancaster

Mr. Kleinschrodt has over 30 years experience in the field of education as both a teacher and administrator. He served in the capacity of Principal & Assistant Principal and just celebrated 11th year at NCCA.

Rich Larcom, Classroom Teacher, Littleton

Mr. Larcom comes to us as a Science Teacher and is looking forward to working with the Littleton students. In his younger days, he was a smoke jumper in Montana and also a Wildlife Biologist.

Sarah Safford, Classroom Teacher, Lancaster

Mrs. Safford joined NCCA in 2018. She is a certified Music teacher and an avid hiker, hiking the AT. She joins us with teaching experience at multiple schools in the suburbs of Washington, DC.

Kim Spaulding, Administrative Assistant

This is Mrs. Spaulding's 4th year at NCCA. She wears many hats at NCCA. She likes to bring a creative viewpoint to education & the office.

Kathy Meddings, Office Manager

Mrs. Meddings started with NCCA as Office Manager in July 2016. During the summers she volunteers at "The Weathervane Theater" and is looking forward to her 32nd season.

Janet Steinert, Data Clerk

Mrs. Steinert started with NCCA in May 2016. She is a retired Elementary/Middle School Administrator who loves hiking, writing and her family.

Kerri Williamson, SAP

New to our staff is Kerri Williamson, Student Assistant Program Counselor. Her goal this school year is to empower students to develop healthy stress management skills, become successful problem solvers, and gain the confidence they need to advocate for themselves.
